WHO WE ARE

36ONE Asset Management (Pty) Ltd (“36ONE / we / our”) is a private company and an authorized financial services provider (FSP No 19107).

The objective of this policy is to protect 36ONEs’ information assets from threats, whether internal or external, deliberate or accidental, to ensure business continuity, minimise business damage, and to maximise business opportunities, as well as to ensure the continued protection of our client’s personal information.

This policy sets out the manner in which 36ONE deals with personal information and stipulates the purpose for which said information is used. The Policy is made available on the company website, www.36one.co.za, and by request from the company’s Information Officer.

PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTED

We collect information directly from you where you provide us with your personal information, for example when you purchase a product or services from us or when you submit enquiries to us or contact us.

36ONE collects and processes client’s personal information pertaining to the client’s financial needs. A client may be a retirement fund, its management and trustee board, an individual, and an employer. For purposes of this Policy, clients include potential and existing clients.

The type of information will depend on the need for which it is collected and will be processed for that purpose only. Whenever possible, we will inform the client as to the information required and the information deemed optional.

Examples of personal information we collect include, but is not limited to:

- The Client’s Identity number, name, surname, postal and physical address, postal code, marital status, and number of dependents;
- Description of the client’s, business, assets; financial information, tax number, banking details, etc.
- Any other information required by 36ONE, suppliers, insurers and asset managers in order to provide clients with an accurate analysis and assessment of their financial needs.

36ONE collect and processes our client’s personal information for marketing purposes (i.e. our newsletter) only once the client has provided consent to do so.

HOW WE USE CLIENT INFORMATION

We will use your personal information only for the purpose of rendering financial services to you and for the purpose for which it was collected or agreed with you, for example:

- to effectively process your investment transactions;
- to communicate to you in respect of your funds invested with 36ONE;
- to detect and prevent fraud;
- to comply with auditing and record-keeping requirements;
- to comply with legal and regulatory requirements;
- to identify and verify your identity;
- to share information with service providers with whom 36ONE has a business agreement to process such information on 36ONE’s behalf or to those who render services to 36ONE.

TO WHOM WE DISCLOSE CLIENT INFORMATION

36ONE may engage with other organisations to provide support services. Third Parties are obliged to respect the confidentiality of any personal information held by 36ONE. 36ONE shall not disclose your personal information to any product or third-party service providers unless agreements are in place to ensure that all service providers comply with these confidentiality and privacy terms.

We may disclose your information where we have a duty or right to disclose your information in terms of applicable legislation, or where it is necessary to protect our legal rights.

HOW WE SAFEGUARD CLIENT INFORMATION

We are legally obliged to provide adequate protection for our Client's personal information. We will, on an ongoing basis, continue to review our security controls and related processes in order to ensure your personal information is secure.

Our security policies and procedures cover:

- Physical security;
- Computer and network security;
- Access to personal information; Secure communications;
- Security in contracting out activities or functions;
- Retention and disposal of information;
- Acceptable usage of personal information;
- Governance and regulatory issues;
- Monitoring access and usage of personal information;
- Investigating and responding to security incidents.

When we contract with third parties, we impose appropriate security, privacy and confidentiality obligations on them to ensure that personal information that we remain responsible for, is kept secure.

We strive to ensure the security, integrity and privacy of any personal information submitted by a client or prospective client. We will review and update our security measures in accordance with future legislation and technological advances. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be totally secure, however, we will endeavour to take all reasonable steps to protect the personal information, which a client submits to the us. We will always set the highest standards to ensure the integrity of our systems. 36ONE will not be held responsible for the loss, destruction, or disclosure of a client's personal information due to a force majeure event.

ACCESS AND CORRECTION OF INFORMATION

Clients have the right to access the personal information 36ONE holds about them. Clients also have the right to ask 36ONE to update, correct or delete their personal information on reasonable grounds. Once a client objects to the processing of their personal information, we may no longer process said personal information. We will take all reasonable steps to confirm our clients' identity before providing details of their personal information or making changes to their personal information.
